June Program Highlights

Friday, June 4, 7:00pm-8:00pm

Memories of Galway” as told by Dorothy King.

“Memories of Galway” will be presented by Galway resident Dorothy King on Friday, June 4, 7-8pm at the Galway Public Library. Dorothy King grew up listening to stories about Galway told by the two most important women in her life: her mother Edith Dorothy Sherman King and her maternal grandmother, Lillian Gibson Sherman. Both women were born in the Town of Galway, were graduated from the Galway High School and are buried in the Galway Cemetery.

Monday, June 28, 2010, Every Monday evening 5-8 pm until August 23, 2010

Arts on the Green with Artist Benno Kollegger

An open studio session with returning local artist Benno Kollegger. Bring your oil paints, clay, watercolor , acrylic paint set, sketchbook, pen or pencil and receive guidance in drawing, painting or sculpting from an internationally exhibited artist.

Don't Forget!! we are open for an additional two (2) hours on Mondays for the summer!

I know well the June rains just fall.
