Saturday, July 29, was a beautiful day for the Galway Lions to say "thank you" to the community that has supported the work they do for 35 years. Adults and children enjoyed outdoor fun with volleyball, soccer, baseball, bubbles, face painting, a demonstration of karate moves and delicious pizza from Justin's Pizza in Galway. Mary Beth Walsh, Assemblywoman of the 112th District, stopped by with well wishes for the Lions and people of Galway. The Arctic National Wildlife Refuge is truly one of the last pristine wild places remaining on our planet. It is home to polar bears, grizzly bears, wolves, Porcupine caribou herd which are sacred to the native Gwich'in people, and over 200 species of birds migrate through six continents and the U.S. to return to the refuge to nest and breed every year. If anyone is interested in helping me protect and save one of our last remaining wild places on our planet, please contact me by e-mail. bthorpe1322@gmail.com Thank you,
