The Board of Trustees of the Galway Public Library is pleased to announce the appointment of Michol Tuttle as Library Director. Ms. Tuttle holds a Master of Science in Information Science from the State University of New York at Albany and has been serving as an Adult Services Librarian at the Town of Ballston Community Library in Burnt Hills. She is a resident of Rotterdam. Ms. Tuttle will begin her work as Galway Library Director on February 17.

Michol started her work in libraries as a work-study student in Schenectady County Community College. After pursuing her bachelor's degree in business management she enrolled in the M.S.I.S program in SUNY Albany, where she took a dual concentration in Archives & Records Management, as well as Information Technology and Systems. After graduation with her ALA-accredited degree she worked as the Adult Services Librarian for the Town of Ballston Community Library. Michol comes to us with several years of management experience in the retail world, having assistant manager and co-manager experience, as well as experience running and owning a business of her own for several years. In her spare time some of Michol's hobbies include writing, reading, singing, songwriting, dancing and acting.

"A library in the middle of a community is a cross between an emergency exit, a life raft and a festival. They are cathedrals of the mind; hospitals of the soul; theme parks of the imagination."
