

Galway Get Together

Volume 4, Issue 60

September 1, 2014

A bi-monthly online newsletter promoting local resources and opportunities

A community service of the Galway Public Library, P.O. Box 207, Galway, NY 12074 Phone: 882-6385.

For Sale

Mahogany antique Pineapple Post twin bed, $60; also, dark wood antique four drawer dresser, $100. Call 371-3653.

For sale or donation to non-profit —
Poole Melodigrand Spinet Piano - 52 keys, S/N 178523. Galway. Asking $500. Contact Holly at 366-1010.

Hammond console/spinet piano with bench. Very good condition; never kept in a basement. Asking $575. Call Jill and leave message at 882-9700.

Positions Available

The Charlton General Store & Café is in search of a responsible adult looking for part time work — Must be willing to grill, cook, waitress, and be an all around clerk. Open seven days a week. Offers flexible work schedule. Apply in person to 747 Charlton Road, Charlton.

Cleaning — The Galway Public Library is looking for someone or a company to clean the library. If you are interested and have your own insurance, please send proposals, questions, concerns, or requests for appointment to Michol Tuttle via email at mtuttle@sals.edu, by mail at 5264 Sacandaga Rd., Galway, NY 12074; or in person.

Deadline is September 18.

Services Available

Healthy Strong and Fit Personal Training Service by Patty Matthews, certified nutrition coach, personal trainer and aromatherapist. I can help you find a more natural, safe and effective way to approach your health. Group and individual training and nutritional counseling. Free consultation. Healthystrong_fit@aol.com or call 641-8121.

Pilates classes — The kids are back on a schedule and it's time to start a new session of Pilates. The Capital District YMCA sponsors two Pilates classes each week beginning September 23 in the Galway High School Library, taught by ESA certified instructor, Sharyn Kalinkewicz. Mondays, 5:15–6:15pm—Continuing Pilates, for those with some prior experience in Pilates. Wednesdays, 5:15–6:15pm — All Levels Pilates, includes modifications for beginners and experienced participants. Participants need not be members of the YMCA to attend. Bring a yoga sticky mat, towel and water. For more information, contact Sharyn at 882-9520.

Community Announcements

Public Notice for Town of Galway —the Galway Town Board will change their regularly scheduled Town Board Meeting for September 2014 from September 9 to September 10 at 7:30pm, due to the Primary Election.

Harmony Corners Fire Department is hosting its famous chicken BBQ on Sunday, September 14, 4-7pm. Dine in or take out. Tickets are $12 each. Dinner includes: 1/2 BBQ chicken, corn on the cob, coleslaw, dinner roll, baked potato, and a slice of pie.

The Galway Get Together seeks to help build a more cohesive and conservation-minded community through local trade and networking. The Galway Public Library is not responsible for the outcome of any exchange.

Heading out on a late summer day on one of Saratoga County's waterways.

Rosie's Walk/Run for Diabetes — September 13, 10am at the Galway Central School, sponsored by the Galway Lions, Lioness and Leo Clubs. The 3.8 mile walk and 5.3 mile run raise funds for the American Diabetes Association, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation and the Galway Volunteer Fire Co. You can help by:

1) Contributing to the Lions' designated walkers (Jason Dickerson and Jim Hodsoll). Send contributions to: P.O. Box 244, Galway, NY 12074. Checks payable to: Galway, NY Lions Club. In memo, please indicate: "Rosie's Walk 2014."

2) Find sponsors and walk/run yourself.

For more information, call Bob at 275-3697 or 627-4261, Jim at 882-6295 or go to: galwaylionsclubny.org.

Galway Food Pantry is open every Thursday, from 10am to 7pm to receive your donations. The Pantry now supplies bread and produce for customers along with their regular monthly order.

The Pantry has been collecting donations of new children's clothing and school supplies. The Pantry volunteers thank all of you who have made generous donations of clothing, supplies and money to help prepare children for a successful school year.

Galway Get Together

Volume 4, Issue 60

September 1, 2014

Send your news to: galwaygettogether@gmail.com

Community Announcements

W. Charlton Volunteer Fire Department – A Night Out with Scotty Mac and the Gold Tops. Swing and blues music. Sat., September 20, 7-11pm. Food, fun, music! Only $15 per person suggested donation, and bring a dish to pass. 100 Western Ave., W. Charlton. Call 882-9632 for more information.

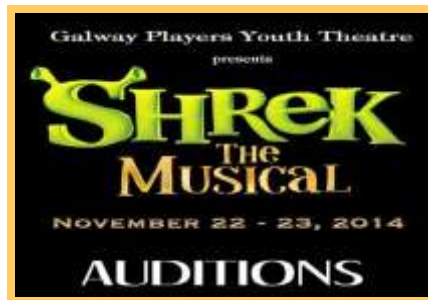

Greenfield Town-wide Garage Sale — September 6-7. Also, a sale at the IOOF Hall in Middle Grove during the town sale on Saturday from 9am– 2pm.

Greenfield Historical Society Pot Luck Dinner — September 16, before the meeting/program at the Community Center, Greenfield. Dinner starts at 5:30pm. Bring a dish to pass and your own place setting. Meeting starts at 7pm. Program: Ron Feulner talking about “Greenfield Before It Became Greenfield.”

Charlton Freehold Presbyterian Church will host their Annual Craft Fair, September 13, 9am – 4pm. The event features quality crafters and their creations of quilted articles, jewelry, knitted and crocheted clothing. Lunch includes our own homemade chili. There will also be a variety of pies and baked goods available for sale.

Chicken BBQ — Sponsored by the Middle Grove United Methodist Church, September 6, from 3-6pm (or until sold out). Tickets are $12. Meal includes half BBQ chicken, baked potato, coleslaw, roll and brownie. Eat in or take out. The church is located at 429 Middle Grove Rd. (corner of Middle Grove and North Creek Roads).

Galway Preservation Society — meets Sept. 8, 7pm at Galway Town Hall. Speaker: Rev. Wayne Brandon on “225th Anniversary of the Bible Baptist Church of Galway.”

Call for Auditions — Galway Players Youth Theatre is holding auditions for the first production of their 2014 season, Shrek — The Musical. Auditions will be held September 7, 1pm at the Galway High School auditorium and are open to children grades 3-12. Complete Audition Form and more information on the website: galwayplayers.org. Rehearsals begin September 14 and performances will be November 22 at 7pm and November 23 at 2pm.

Eagle Mills 20th Annual Craft Show will be held on two upcoming weekends: September 13 and 14 and 20 and 21. Located off Route 29 in Broadalbin, the park hosts 150+ juried crafters featuring woodwork, quilts, baskets, florals, candles, clothing, painting, nature photos, jewelry and much more. Cider mill, bakery, ice cream/fudge shop, gem mine and dino dig are in full swing, too. Clowns, face painting and all kinds of fun plus food and music in a beautiful country atmosphere. Free admission to Craft Show, $5 per car parking fee (partial proceeds donated to local charity). For more information on Eagle Mills and upcoming events go to: <http://www.eagle mills fun.com/>.

Don't miss the fun, food and music of the Galway Farmer's Market, every Friday through September 26, from 3-6pm at the Town Pavilion. Features locally grown produce, homemade products and food vendors. Also, pick up a Galway Farmer's Market T-shirt, logo design by area artist Ralph Caparulo.

Galway Fire House News —The Galway Volunteer Fire Co. has been busy this summer with weekly training drills and answering emergency calls, including motor vehicle accidents, hazardous conditions during rain and thunderstorms, medical assistance calls with the ambulance service, and responding to many other alarms. Firehouse members have attended NYS Fire Service training for interior firefighters, operation of emergency vehicles and pump apparatus. Several members have moved up from Explorer Post #23 to full members of the company. Members are also preparing for Fire Prevention presentations at the Galway Central School, October 5-11.

Feast of the Fields — September 11, 5-8:30pm at Saratoga National Golf Club. Annual fundraiser for Saratoga PLAN, the event features locally grown produce prepared by Saratoga County chefs. Supports sustainable agriculture and the regional economy, and promotes greater awareness of conserving area farms and the importance of buying and eating locally. Feast of the Fields also includes music, a silent auction and a reception honoring local conservation heroes. Tickets are $85. More information on Feast of the Fields blog at www.feastofthefields.org, or call 587-5554.

Patrick McHale, former Galway resident and current member of the Galway Lions, moved to Los Angeles last year to work full time on his cartoon series, “Over the Garden Wall” which will premiere in early November on the Cartoon Network. Patrick created, wrote, animated and provided the music for the series. View the trailer at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2q-Ky85r-N8>. Patrick maintains membership in the Galway Lions, even from Los Angeles, because he believes strongly in the organization's good work.