Interested in volunteering in your community? The Board of Trustees of the Galway Public Library will have two vacant seats eligible to be filled at the annual election. Anyone interested may contact a current trustee (see the library website galwaypubliclibrary.org for a list) or Deb Flint at gal-director@sals.edu for information. Petitions for signatures are ready to be picked up at the library and need to be returned to Deb Flint by May 14. The election is on June 14 from 1:00—8:00 and the term begins immediately following the election. This is a great way to help out the library and your community!
